Re: Eviction order to 35 Roma Families in Rome, Italy

As the President of International Romani Union, I hereby request a serious attention to be given by all involved services and departments to resolve the current situation with the order given to 35 Roma families in Rome, Italy, to vacate the premises at Via Salaria, number QE/18767 de from 7th March 2016, issued by the Department of Social politics of the Rome capital.

In case a solution of, either allocating alternative premises or to leave the families where they are, will not be found speedily after the meetings initiated by Mr. Marcello Zuinisi, who has our full support in pursuing this case, International Romani Union will consider to initiate the appeal to the European Court of Human Rights.

Sincerely yours
Dr. Normunds Rudevics
The President of IRU
